

Return & Refund Policy

Company Name: TechCart

1. Return Period

Customers can request a return within 7 days from the date of delivery. Products returned after 7 days are generally not eligible for return.

2. Damaged Product

If a product is received damaged, the customer must report the issue within 48 hours of delivery. The customer may be asked to provide photographs or other evidence of the damage.

3. Wrong Product

If the customer receives a product different from the one ordered, they can request a return within 7 days of delivery. TechCart will arrange the return and provide a replacement or refund according to the customer's preference and product availability.

4. Refund Eligibility

A refund may be provided when the product is damaged during delivery, the wrong product was delivered, the product is defective and the issue is verified, or the return request meets the company's return conditions.

5. Non-Returnable Products

Products damaged by the customer, products with missing accessories, products without original packaging, and products returned after the allowed return period cannot normally be returned.

6. Refund Processing

After the returned product is received and inspected, the refund will normally be processed within 5–7 business days. The actual time for the amount to appear in the customer's account may depend on the payment provider or bank.

7. Exchange

Customers may request an exchange for an eligible damaged, defective, or incorrect product. Exchange requests are subject to product availability.

8. Cancellation

An order can be cancelled before it is shipped. Once an order has been shipped, cancellation may not be possible. The customer may need to use the return process after delivery.

9. Return Shipping

For eligible damaged or incorrect products, TechCart will generally cover the return shipping cost. For other returns, the customer may be responsible for return shipping charges.

10. Contact Support

For return or refund assistance, customers should contact TechCart Customer Support and provide their order ID.
